

Australian Business Economists

Australian Business Economists (ABE) aims to encourage greater understanding of economic issues by fostering debate in the financial markets, business and commercial sectors and across the community in general. The Association was formed in 1980 with three main objectives:

- to provide a meeting place for people interested in economic affairs;
- to promote the better understanding and use of economic analysis by business; and
- to improve the flow of communication between academic economists and business people.

Membership

You are invited to join Australian Business Economists. ABE members represent a variety of business sectors including: banking, financial services, government and industry. ABE members enjoy a range of benefits including: functions with access to senior government policy makers; function discounts; networking opportunities; and member-only events.

Membership runs from on a calendar year basis and costs $75 (including GST) each year. Members who join on or after 1 October in any year will receive the remainder of that year free of charge. That is, join on or after 1 October 2012 and your next renewal will not be billed until January 2014.
